

Kentucky Library Association Youth Services Roundtable
Kentucky Library Associations Board Meeting
November 12, 2011

The Youth Services roundtable sponsored three mini session presentations at the fall conference, which were all well attended. Our roundtable was also a co-sponsor for author Phil Bildner at the Friday KSMA/ KLA luncheon. The Youth Services roundtable also hosted a swap and shop table in the exhibit hall during the fall conference with some example programs like an art recreation program using famous inspired artists works, a pirate or grandparents storytime or even a special party like “cloudy with chance of meatballs party” along with copies of Warren County Public Library’s 100 Books to Read Before Kindergarten and our new list of 100 Cool Books to Read Before Third Grade. During the fall conference our roundtable’s scheduled business meeting was not attended by any conference attendees.

I also sent personal thank you notes to all my sponsored presenters from the fall conference. I also created a Facebook page for the KLA Youth Services Roundtable too. Our Roundtable also submitted an article for the current November issue of the IN-FOCUS discussing our new Youth Service Roundtable listserv and also trying to promote new membership in both KLA and the Youth Services Roundtable.

Respectfully submitted,

Stephanie Wycihowski
