

Report to the Kentucky Library Association Board
President
November 20, 2010
Louisville, Kentucky

Correspondences

I wrote a letter on behalf of KLA in support of the American Association of School Librarians choosing Lexington, KY as the site of their 2015 AASL National Conference & Expo.

Meetings

I attended the Kentucky School Media Association's Board Meeting November 13, 2010. I will be attending ALA Midwinter in San Diego, CA, January 6-11, 2011 with President-Elect, Terry Buckner.

News

ALA President, Roberta Stevens wrote about her visit to Kentucky and the 2010 KLA/KSMA Conference in her President's Message for the American Libraries Magazine. If you did not see the article, Some Good News Out There, it is available online at <http://americanlibrariesmagazine.org/columns/presidents-message/some-good-news-out-there-too>. I am honored and proud that President Stevens chose to showcase our wonderful Kentucky libraries.

Other Items

Elliot Appelbaum, Chair, Fund Raising Committee, has been asked to develop the composition, duties, and expenses for the Committee for consideration of the Board of Directors at the March 2011 Board meeting.

Robert Gieszl, Chair, Strategic Planning & Organization Review, has been asked to update the Blue Book with all the past changes. He has been working with Beth Kraemer to have a draft available for the November 2010 Board meeting.

For Approval by the Board of Directors

I will be presenting the following Ad Hoc Committees to the Board for approval at our November 20, 2010 meeting.

AH-1 Kentucky Virtual Library
AH-2 Conference Analysis & Assessment Committee
AH-3 Web Redesign Committee

Please see attached documentation for Committee Members, Committee Charge, and other information.

Respectfully submitted,

Leoma Dunn
President
