

KENTUCKY LIBRARY ASSOCIATION BOARD MEETING
DOUBLETREE HOTEL, LEXINGTON, KY
NOVEMBER 15, 2008

SOUTHEASTERN LIBRARY ASSOCIATION (SELA) REPORT

The Southeastern Library Association Executive Board met twice during the KLA Joint Conference in October. President Faith Line and President-Elect Kathleen Imhoff are working on the SELA Leadership Conference for 2009. SELA will work with Arkansas on a joint conference in 2010. The conference headquarters will be in the Embassy Suites in Rogers, Arkansas, however the site and dates have not yet been announced.

SELA membership stands at 264. Kentucky has 39 members. State representatives shared news from their regions. Most shared plans for their state association conferences. Budget cuts and concerns seem to be wide spread among member states.

SELA officers for 2009-2011 are:

President – Kathleen Imhoff, Kentucky

President-Elect – Michael Seigler, Georgia

Secretary – Elizabeth Doolittle, Mississippi

Treasurer – Gordon Baker

Among the SELA award winners was Kathleen Imhoff, Director of the Lexington Public Library. Kathleen received the prestigious Rothrock Award honoring a librarian who has contributed substantially to the furtherance of librarianship in the southeast. A complete list of award winners is available on the SELA website, <http://sela.jsu.edu/>.

Submitted by:

Lisa R. Rice