

KENTUCKY LIBRARY ASSOCIATION BOARD MEETING OCTOBER 2, 2009

SOUTHEASTERN LIBRARY ASSOCIATION (SELA) ANNUAL REPORT

The Southeastern Library Association Executive Board met twice during the KLA Joint Conference in October. President Faith Line and President-Elect Kathleen Imhoff are working on the SELA Leadership Conference for 2009. SELA will work with Arkansas on a joint conference in 2010.

SELA membership stands at 264. Kentucky has 39 members.

SELA officers for 2009-2011 are:

President – Kathleen Imhoff, Kentucky

President-Elect – Michael Seigler, Georgia

Secretary – Elizabeth Doolittle, Mississippi

Treasurer – Gordon Baker

Among the SELA award winners was Kathleen Imhoff, Director of the Lexington Public Library. Kathleen received the prestigious Rothrock Award honoring a librarian who has contributed substantially to the furtherance of librarianship in the southeast. A complete list of award winners is available on the SELA website, <http://sela.jsu.edu/>.

SELA will be sponsoring a preconference session, Expanding Services without Expanding Budgets, at the Georgia COMO (Council of Media Organizations) Conference in Columbus, Georgia on Friday, October 9th. The Board will meet the same date. The Board has been conducting a survey of members to better understand member expectations of the organization.
