Report to the Board

March 5, 2011

Issue 1 of volume 75 (Winter) arrived in mailboxes on time (mid-February). Unfortunately, due to an error by the printer, this issue's last four pages (29-32) were not the correct pages—they were a reprint of part of an article from the Summer issue (volume 74 #3). I worked with Tom Underwood and Leoma Dunn to resolve this problem. Each subscriber will receive a mailing explaining what happened, including the entire “Internet Reviews” column by Claudene Sproles, which was one page short in the issue. The final article, a “Looking Back” column by Jonathan Jeffrey, will appear in its entirety (three pages) in the Spring 2011 issue. I apologized to both authors; each was gracious and agreed to the resolution. Many thanks to Tom and Leoma for their help with this frustrating situation.

On the bright side, the Winter issue has a stunning new cover design (“Information . . . The Library Superpower”) which will be used during 2011. Many thanks to Jeff Freibert and Paula Freibert of Compass Creative for their excellent work on the cover and the layout of Kentucky Libraries. The deadline for the second issue of volume 75 (Spring) is March 15, with distribution planned for mid-May.

Reminder: The “Preservation Perspectives” column does not have a regular columnist. Members are encouraged to be a guest columnist for this column.

Also: Rae Helton has resigned as the “Diversity Dispatch” columnist, so if you are interested or you know someone who might be interested, please let me know. Many thanks to Rae for her enlightening and well-written columns.

Many thanks to our regular columnists: David Ensign (“Copyright Corner”); Mildred Franks (“Kentucky Kaleidoscope”); Debbe Oberhausen (“Spotlight”); Jonathan Jeffrey (“Looking Back”); and to our newest columnist, Katherine Pennavaria (“Genealogy Gems”).

The distribution schedule follows:

- March 15 for the Spring Issue, published in mid-May
- June 15 for the Summer Issue, published in mid-August
- September 15 for the Fall Issue, published in mid-November
- December 15 for the Winter Issue, published in mid-February.

Kudos to the editorial board members for their skill and dedication. The board members are:

- Carol Brinkman, Kornhauser Library, University of Louisville
- Dennis Carrigan, University of Kentucky
- Johan Koren, Murray State University
- Katherine Pennavaria, Western Kentucky University-Glasgow Campus

Respectfully Submitted,
Robin R. Harris, Editor
