

The last issue of volume 74 and the first three issues of volume 75 were distributed on schedule. The following schedule indicates submission deadlines and distribution dates:

December 15 for the Winter Issue (#1), published in mid-February
March 15 for the Spring Issue (#2), published in mid-May
June 15 for the Summer Issue (#3), published in mid-August
September 15 for the Fall Issue (#4), published in mid-November

At the suggestion of Katherine Pennavaria and with the approval of the board, Kentucky Libraries added a new column, "Genealogy Gems," beginning with the Fall 2010 issue (vol. 74 #4). Katherine is overseeing the column, sometimes writing and sometimes editing the columns of guest writers.

Rae Helton's last "Diversity Dispatch" column appeared in vol. 74 #4. I hope to have a new columnist on board soon.

I will present the Kentucky Libraries Award to John Schlipp of Northern Kentucky University at the Awards Luncheon on Thursday, September 29. His article, "Creative Thinking: A Student-Centered Approach to Plagiarism and Copyright," was published in the Summer 2010 issue (vol. 74 #3).

The following KLA members served on the editorial board during 2010-2011:

Carol Brinkman, Kornhauser Library, University of Louisville;
Dennis Carrigan, University of Kentucky School of Library & Information Science;
Robin Harris, University of Louisville Law Library;
Johan Koren, College of Education, Murray State University;
Katherine Pennavaria, Western Kentucky University-Glasgow Campus.

Incoming KLA President Terry Buckner has asked me to serve another term as editor and I agreed to do so. I truly appreciate the support I received from outgoing President Leoma Dunn and look forward to working with Terry and the editorial board.

The board met during the Fall 2010 KLA Conference, and will meet again this year on Thursday, September 29 at 5:00 p.m. in the Walnut Room (third floor, Rivue [West] Tower).

The editor once again enjoyed an excellent working relationship with Paula Freibert and Jeff Freibert of Compass Creative, whose help and guidance were priceless.

Respectfully submitted,

Robin R. Harris, Editor
Kentucky Libraries
