Library Awareness

Report to the KLA Board

December 8, 2007

Louisville, Kentucky

As many of you know the Louisville Free Public Library's tax referendum was not passed. I won't say it failed because despite not being passed many positive things came out of the campaign, most notably, public awareness of the Library's needs and the Community's support. I know it seems ironic that I claim community support after the defeat, yet Library Director Craig Buthod feels much was accomplished and is optimistic about the Library's ability to move forward.

I submitted a "Library Awareness" article to IN-FO-CUS and an additional article I called "Accolades." I am not sure if the second made the publication. I have attached both with this report.

Next year ALA's annual Legislative Day it will be May 13 and 14, 2008. It's not too early to begin planning for Section Representation.
