

Library Administration and Management Round Table (LAMRT)
Annual Report
Kentucky Library Association Board Meeting
September 23, 2011

The round table recruited Jack Montgomery to submit a session proposal on a management topic at Joint Spring Conference. His presentation proposal was accepted and he presented "But Libraries Are Such Peaceful, Happy Places: A Critical Look at Dynamics of Conflict in the Workplace" on Friday, April 15, 2011.

Because the Joint Spring Conference session was very well-received, we also invited Jack to present "Nothing So Certain or So Difficult: Insights on Managing Organizational Change" as our conference session. We will hold a brief business meeting immediately following the session.

Respectfully submitted,
Abby Thorne, Chair
